MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Visit of Gen. Doolittle and Mr. Coyne, PFIAB, 25X1A to [redacted]

25X1A 1. [redacted] of ORD informed me he received a 25X1A telephone call on 11 June from [redacted] They informed him that Gen. Graves Erskine, former Marine Corps Commandant and later Intelligence Advisor to the Secretary of Defense, is a [redacted] consultant. In the latter capacity he has invited Gen. Doolittle and Mr. Coyne to visit [redacted] 25X1A and become acquainted with their capacity to assist in the National intelligence effort. The visitation will occur during the week of 15 June 1964.

25X1A 2. [redacted] representative inquired of [redacted] if they were at liberty to mention the existence of two DD/S&T contracts, one from OEL to produce an ELINT processor and the other from ORD in support of polygraph research. [redacted] requested my advice. 25X1A

25X1A 3. I discussed the matter with [redacted] and 25X1A [redacted] Deputy Director of Security.

25X1A 4. I advised [redacted] to inform [redacted] they were at liberty to acknowledge the existence of a CIA contract for the production of an ELINT processor. They were not at liberty to divulge the ORD contract on polygraph support. 25X1A [redacted] was to be further advised that [redacted] was speaking only on behalf of these two contracts inasmuch as we had no knowledge or responsibility for any other Agency contracts with [redacted]. I further suggested in my conversation with [redacted] on this matter that he pursue the issue from the point of non-DD/S&T Agency contracts with [redacted] 25X1A
